

RULE 0.6
REAPPLICATION FOR ORDER

(a) When an order has been applied for and refused in whole or in part or has been granted conditionally and the condition has not been performed, the same application for an order must not be presented to another Judge, without disclosure of the prior refusal.

(b) If a subsequent application is made upon an alleged different state of facts, it must be shown by affidavit what application was made, when and to what Judge, what order or decision was made thereon, and what new facts are claimed to be shown.

(c) Any order entered in violation of this rule may be set aside upon motion.
